Europe

From April 2010 to November 2012 I was President of the Youth of European Nationalities, the largest umbrella association of youth associations of the autochthonous and national minorities in Europe, based in Berlin. The aim of the NGO is to protect the rights of minorities, provide youth exchanges and to raise awareness for minority issues. As President I was responsible for all decisions of the association and its employees, budgeting, fund-raising, project management, PR-work, organisation of congresses and for the advocacy in European institutions.
